Notes:

1. Each study unit is taught over a period of either two or three consecutive days (depending on the respective venue) supported by tutor-guided 'homework' and remote tutor support where appropriate, prior to the examination. The price does not include any of the optional extras listed above or the costs of entering the CIPS examination.
2. Lunch is provided at the Henley Crammer, but not the New Forest Centre for Purchasing Studies or London Centre.
3. All prices exclusive of VAT at +20.0%.
4. Please note that terms and conditions of booking apply – please refer to our websites for further details: www.nfcps.co.uk, www.cips-henleycrammer.co.uk and www.cips-london.co.uk
5. It is generally recommended that students will require some additional reading to support their studies. In most cases, the CIPS Official Course Book is sufficient (price £32.00 directly from the CIPS Bookshop <http://bookshop.cips.org/>). However, for some study units, we will provide guidance on alternative books or study guides that are helpful. Please contact us for further details.
6. These prices are valid for bookings made in the calendar year of 2012 only.
